Miss Willie Hughes, who is visiting in Atlanta, Ga., expects to take a trip with a party of ladies and gentlemen from that place to Cuba before she returns to her home in Morganfield.—Sturgis Enterprise.

There will be no issue of this paper next week. This is not "in accordance with the usual custom," for the gratification of our editor, who wishes to visit his mother, of course.

Homer Prince in Searey, Ark., Economist.

Catarth is not a local but a constitutional disease and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla to effect a cure.

DEATHS.

Esq. W. H. Cato, of the Seaton's Mill district, died suddenly on the 19th inst. of paralysis. He was on a visit at the house of Jas. R. Brown when he was taken ill without warning and lived but a short time. Esq. Cato was about 75 years old and had long been the most prominent Democrat in his section of the county. He was a member of the Hopkinsville bar and was a familiar figure about the Court House during Circuit Court.

Rev. Thos. E. Tiller, formerly pastor of the Pembroke Baptist church, died at Bartow, Fla., on the 25th, of consumption. He had gone to Florida in the hope of finding relief from the disease that caused his death. A good man has fallen.

COLORED.

The wife of Jim Wallace died in the city last Friday of consumption, aged about 35 years.

Fayette Whitlock died a few miles south of the city Thursday.

A colored boy, an asylum patient, died last Thursday.

Millie Poindexter died in the city Saturday of typhoid fever, aged 10 years. An older sister died of a similar complaint about a week ago.

HERE AND THERE.

Vital Liver Pills improve the complexion.

Feed, Hay, and hitch with Jas. M. Hipkins.

Madisonville will vote on an electric light proposition Jan. 10.

R. M. Woodbridge, livery, feed & sale stable, Fritz stand. Telephone 141.

Watch the date on your paper. Don't wait to be reminded that your time is out.

Capt. Jno. H. Dell has added his name to the list of candidates for the office of city collector.

Mrs. J. L. Connell has opened a boarding house on Ninth street next to the Methodist church.

W. T. Cooper is now the proud father of a baby girl that came as a Christmas gift on the 23rd.

The Hopkinsville Public Schools adjourned on last Wednesday and take holiday until next Monday.

The young men will give a dance at Anderson's Hall this evening, in honor of the visiting young ladies.

One of Hopkinsville's prominent doctors received a Christmas present in the person of a bouncing baby boy.

Mr. A. W. Pyle is anxious to "swap back" with the party who exchanged hats with him at the Cemetery one day last week.

A Democratic City Council will go into office one week from today and upon its wheel house will be painted the legend, "Come to Stay."

Good boarding house, furnished, to rent to parties who have their own help. Doing good business. Address "H. K. KENTUCKIAN office."

Esq. Thos. Green, who has lived in the city for the last two years, returned to his farm near Casky last week, where he will reside hereafter.

Some good theatrical tractions are booked for next month. Pete Baker will be here on the 13th and the McGibeny family on the 26th.

Mr. G. L. Pitt has been appointed county attorney (or attorney general as the office is called in Tennessee) for Montgomery county, vice M. Savage, resigned.

Mr. Jack S. Moore, who has been with Mr. W. F. Garnett for several years, has been admitted to a partnership by Mr. Garnett and the firm will hereafter be Garnett & Moore.

The members of the K. of P. Lodge at Trenton will give an oyster supper at that place Friday evening next. It promises to be a grand affair and more than two hundred invitations will be issued.

The dwelling house of a Mr. Sims, at Cobb Station, was destroyed by fire one night last week. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. The loss, which was total, was not insured.

Mr. A. A. Metz has moved into his handsome new residence on South Main. It is one of the most attractive houses in town and is an ornament to the fashionable residence street upon which it is situated.

Can't Dr. Harrison do something for Tolliver Chappell, who assaulted an old colored man for voting the Democratic ticket? Tolliver's anticipation of the Force bill certainly deserves some notice from an administration which is exerting itself to get the bill passed.—Courier Journal.

Capt. Jouett Henry, of this city, who was last week elected Lieut. Col. of the Third Regiment of State Guards, is in every way worthy of the promotion. He is well up in military tactics, is an enthusiastic soldier, a good disciplinarian and a thorough gentleman. He deserves to go even higher.

M. D. Vickers, a young man from near Madisonville, who was teaching school at Sacramento, has gotten into trouble by forging the name of the chairman of his board of trustees and drawing two months' pay. The latter claiming that Vickers was trying to beat him out of money due him for his board, has issued a warrant for his arrest.

Mr. R. R. Donaldson, of this city, recently with Rice & Co., as traveling agent for their tobaccos, has accepted a similar position with the Jas. G. Butler Tobacco Company, of St. Louis, and will represent them in a southern territory next year. They will find Mr. Donaldson a valuable man and one who will build up their trade largely wherever he goes.

Rev. M. W. Tabor, pastor of the Universalist Church of this city, and Rev. Petty, a Baptist minister of Mayfield, will hold a religious debate of four days, in the Court House at Mayfield, beginning Jan. 3. Two propositions will be discussed, viz: First—The Scriptures teach a future general judgment, conducted by Christ in person. Affirmed by Petty and denied by Tabor. Second—The Scriptures teach the final holiness and happiness of all mankind. Tabor affirming and Petty denying. Rev. Petty is the challenging party.

The entertainment at Mr. C. B. Webb's Friday evening was one of the pleasantest and most fashionable events of the season. The attendance was just large enough to comfortably fill the handsome double parlors and the supper at 10 o'clock did credit to Mrs. Webb's already well-established reputation as a hostess. The guests of the evening were Miss Johnson and Miss Mildred Johnson, of Louisville, and they were assisted in receiving by Misses Mary Radford, Lizzie Mercer, Cora Petree, Lallie Woodbridge, Mary Clark, Gamie Wallis, Nannie Barbour, Mary Bell Mercer, Madge Fairleigh and Lalla Meade, of Louisville.

W. W. ALEXANDER, Agt.

If Your House is on Fire.

You put water on the burning timbers not on the smoke. And if you have catarrh you should attack the disease in the blood, not in your nose. Remove the impure cause, and the local effect subsides. To do this, take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which radically and permanently cures catarrh. It also strengthens the nerves. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. Jno. H. Milliken, District Passenger Agent of the L. & N. Railroad at Louisville, is soon to wed Miss Bertha Siegel, a charming young lady of Louisville. The date has not yet been announced, but it will be some time in the near future. Mr. Milliken has been a widower for several years. His deceased wife was Miss Fannie Randolph, of this city.

Mr. Dave Smith, of the Bennettsville vicinity, was recently married to Miss Leah Lewis, of Stewart county, Tenn.

Hill Wood—Mr. W. H. Hill and Miss Allie E. Wood were married at the residence of Esquire William F. Wood, of Sinking Fork, father of the bride, Wednesday evening last. Rev. J. U. Spurlin officiating. An elegant reception was tendered the happy couple. The bride has been quite a favorite in society, owing to her extreme beauty and pleasant disposition. And the groom is an industrious, steady young man, who has many friends that will be pleased to hear of his good fortune in winning the heart and hand of such a worthy lady.

THE W. C. COUP ENCHANTED ROLLING PALACE.

Museum, Aquarium and Auditorium. 300 feet long.

The Newest, Grandest, Most Novel, Interesting and Wonderful Exhibition ever conceived. Nothing like it on Earth.

At this writing (Dec. 31st) this Novel Exhibition has been less than three (3) weeks before the people and has more than realized the most sanguine expectations of its projector. Its vast halls have been packed at every stopping place. It is the only exhibition that ever gave entertainment in 3 or 4 places each day; in fact it is a complete innovation, and in this short time it has been found necessary to add two more halls in order to accommodate the vast crowds who flock to see its myriads of wonders. It is a "Mystery" Palace on Wheels, filled with wonders from earth, air and sea, such rare curiosities and scientific wonders as can be transported in no other way. The entire palace is heated by steam, and magnificently lighted by hundreds of the most beautifully variegated electric lights.

We give below evidences of its merits. They are the voices of the people who have visited us and speak for themselves. In addition to these I am permitted to add a message from the superintendent of the C. & A. R. R. in which he says: "To the Manager of the W. C. COUP Exhibition: If you return over our line I will guarantee you will do three (3) times the business you did going down as I have never seen people so enthusiastic, but you must have more room to accommodate the crowds."

CREAM OF NEWS.

Burned to Death.

A little child of the Marshal of Empire was burned so badly last Wednesday afternoon that it died a few hours later. Its clothing caught from the grate.

County Union.

The County Union will meet at the Court House on Jan. 2 and 3, 1891, for the first time for several months. The meeting is expected to be a very important one.

Another Double Edition.

The KENTUCKIAN will issue next week a double edition devoted to the tobacco trade. It will be profusely illustrated and a large number of extra papers will be printed for distribution. Business men desiring to take advantage of this great opportunity, will please hand in their advertisements not later than next Saturday.

Speaking Begun.

The attorneys are now speaking in the Cowan Prowse contest. W. W. Clarke for Cowan and H. Ferguson for Prowse, began yesterday. G. M. Bell for Cowan, J. I. Landos for Prowse, H. J. Stites for Cowan, Jas. Broullitt for Prowse and Joe McCarr for Cowan will follow in the order named. Argument will be concluded by Thursday.

House Burned.

Mr. J. H. Duval, a poor farmer living a few miles northeast of town, was burned out of house and home Tuesday evening. His dwelling, smoke house, barn and stables were all destroyed. His family was absent at the time and the loss was total. In his barn his crop of tobacco, all his farming implements and about 35 head of sheep were destroyed. His loss is probably $1,000 with $750 insurance on his dwelling house.

Killing No. 2 at Crofton.

(Correspondence KENTUCKIAN.)

CROFTON, Ky., Dec. 28.—News has just reached here of the killing of Thos. Farmer, by Jas. Ellis Brown, son of Jas. R. Brown, six miles west of here. The report is that Farmer went to Jas. R. Brown yesterday evening under the influence of whisky and began to abuse Brown's family and Jas. E. Brown took him by the arm and asked him to go home, which Farmer agreed to do, but before they got far he drew a knife and made fight at Brown and he (Brown) ran a short distance and picked up a piece of fence rail which he threw at Farmer, striking him in the breast near the heart and killing him instantly. Brown was still at large this morning.

Christmas Eve Killing.

Josh Maynor, col., shot and killed John Moore, a son of Dr. J. R. Moore, at Crofton, on the afternoon of Dec. 24. It is understood that the trouble was from an old quarrel over a game of cards. The parties met in front of O. A. West's saloon and after some hot words Moore was seen to throw up his hands as if to strike and Maynor pulled out a pistol and fired in his face. The ball entered below his left eye and death followed in five minutes. Robt. Moore, a brother of John, was near by and the negro struck him on the head with the pistol, knocking him down also. Great excitement ensued and there were threats of lynching Maynor but Sheriff West happened to be at Crofton and took charge of him and brought him to jail on the 5 o'clock train. John Moore was 24 years old and Maynor is about the same age. The latter will set up a plea of self-defense and claim that Moore was armed. The examining trial will be held before Judge Morrow on Jan. 2. This is the first time since the Stanley-Ebling case that a man has been killed in this county by one of a different race. The white and colored races as a rule fall out and fight each other.

Jones & Banks, the Seventh street tonsorial artists, have had their shop newly papered, painted and otherwise improved in appearance as well as comfort.

The manager of the Peerless Minstrels has received another proposition from the managers of the Opera House at Haverhill, Ky., to play two nights the latter part of January. As some of the members are absent the proposition will probably not be accepted at present.

The Christmas cantata by the Methodist children, at the Opera House, was a big success. It was largely attended.
